

Brief CV:

Krishna Kumar Ramani is presently working as the freelance optometrist and educationalist as well as contributing as a visiting occupational optometrist and faculty member at Sankara Nethralaya and Elite school of optometry respectively. He did his undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral degrees from Elite School of Optometry, run in collaboration with Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani. He also possesses Masters in Psychology and Fellowship in British dispensing optics (FBDO). Previously, he worked as the head of the department of optometry at Sankara Nethralaya for 7 years and as the principal of the Elite School of Optometry for 16 years. In addition, was heading the occupational optometry department for 6 years at Sankara Nethralaya. He has 32 peer-review publications and authored 2 books in optometry and was editor and chapter contributor in occupational optometry/health books. At present, he is guiding one doctoral student.

Area of research interest: FALLS prevention, Low Vision awareness, Optometric education, Occupational optometry – setting vision standards

Teaching Interest: Clinical Examination visual System, Medical Psychology, Occupational Optometry, Low Vision Care, Binocular Vision, Geriatric Optometry, Public Health, Glaucoma