

Highlights

- Children select their own frames.
- Parents are definitely involved while distributing glasses.
- Follow-up camps were conducted to check for spectacle compliance.
- We not only screen for refractive error but also for binocular vision difficulties.
- Its not only screening. We also provide free glasses for those children who have refractive error.
- In case if some children affected with some other ocular abnormalities, other than refractive error referred to free wing of Sankara Nethralaya(JCOC) for further management free of cost.
- Single day vision screening were conducted in which huge number of children were screened in a particular day.